The text “More recently... norm of a state” in Appendix B 2 of our paper [except Eqs. (B12)–(B15)] was largely reproduced from the work of Secular et al. [1] for limited purposes of the description of theoretical methods. However, although that work was cited, we overlooked including quotation marks or a clear statement of attribution to indicate that much of the area in question was taken directly from that work. We apologize for the oversight.
