Announcement: PRD Editors' Suggestions

As a service to our readers, we are formally marking a small number of papers published in Physical Review D that the editors and referees find of particular interest, importance, or clarity. These Editors' Suggestion papers will be listed prominently on the journal's website and marked with a special icon in print. The icon contains the printer's mark that at one time appeared on the covers of all sections of the Physical Review.
