This article contains two typographical errors.

The first one is located in the caption of Fig. 4(c). The base of the logarithmic function for the soft mode should read e (Euler's number).

The second typographical error is located in the descriptive formula of the spontaneous emission coefficient ε , given in the second paragraph of Sec. IV C. It should read $\varepsilon = c\sigma\tau/\pi w_o^2 nL$.

All calculations and figures in the paper were performed with the correct expressions above, and none of the results presented in the paper are affected by the typographical errors.
